MOOSE TO HOLD BIG FROLIC IN THE CITY

The Loyal Order of Moose is contemplating purchasing a site in California for a home for aged members of the order. The home of the late Phoebe Hearst near Pleasanton, consisting of about 500 acres of rich land in one of the finest parts of the state, seems at present the site most likely to be selected. Director-General James J. Davis and Supreme Secretary Rodney H. Brandon of the order will be on the coast this week and will look over the various sites while here.

Many local Moose will attend the grand reception to be held in the Moose auditorium in San Francisco Saturday night in honor of the two distinguished leaders, and also the Mooseheart Legion frolic to take place at the same place Sunday and Sunday night.

Special Organizer J. Rush Bronson visited the South City Moose lodge last Tuesday evening and gave an interesting talk on the progressive features of the order. Mr. Bronson will be at the next meeting of the lodge, accompanied by Joseph A. Gray, the prelate of San Francisco lodge.

COASTSIDE RESIDENTS ASK NEW BOULEVARD

Urge Making of Ocean Shore Railroad
Right of Way Into Great Scenic Highway.

The Enterprise has been asked to republish the article below, which appeared in last week's Coastside Comet. It does so cheerfully, because the proposed road would unquestionably be a good thing for all San Mateo county and especially for the coastside residents. Such a road, besides being a scenic drive without a peer in the state, would without doubt meet with the hearty approval of government engineers, as set forth.

The article follows:

STATE AID.

The people of the coastside should circulate a petition to Senator M. B. Johnson, asking him to secure legislation that will provide aid in securing the right of way of the Ocean Shore Railway and changing it into a wide scenic boulevard to take care of the increasing traffic for business and pleasure. The state is interested, because it will be a highway that taxpayers from every part of the state will be interested in. No state road except the main highways will be of service to so many people. The million people around the bay need the road. The San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, the Santa Cruz Chamber of Commerce and the different Chambers of Commerce of San Mateo county should get behind the movement. The United States government contributes to the building of roads to forest reservations. It is of much greater importance that a coast boulevard for national defense and protection be built. It is true that we are to have the Skyline boulevard, but it is also true that there are a million people in the San Francisco bay district who support the government by taxes and are entitled to consideration. This is not a local or county affair. It is for the state and nation to consider. Government engineers have time and again recommended the establishment of coast defenses between San Francisco and Halfmoon Bay. Millions are being spent at San Diego and San Pedro and other points, but the unprotected coast south of San Francisco needs at least the protection and convenience of a broad coast line boulevard. The road over the mountain is efficient, but not sufficient. We need a wide, properly constructed boulevard from the Great White Way via Colma Hills, Beach Hill, Pedro Tunnel, Saddle Rock, and on to Halfmoon Bay. We believe that if our people would send a petition to Senator Johnson that a practical plan may be worked out and that the state will provide the funds. If you are interested, address a communication to State Senator M. B. Johnson, Sacramento, Calif.

COWBOY FEATURE AT THE Y. M. C. A.

L. E. Cole to Appear Here in Program of Songs and Readings.

Another worth-while entertainment is being planned for the South San Francisco Y. M. C. A. by Secretary Irving Larimore. This time the entertainer will be Lou E. Cole, the cowboy poet, philosopher, and reader.

In bringing Mr. Cole to South San Francisco, the local Y. M. C. A. is following its usual policy of offering local residents entertainments that are really worth attending. Mr. Cole was one of the most popular entertainers at the soldiers' camps during the war, and he is now filling successful engagements with lyceum and Chautauqua bureaus. His program consists of original character readings, songs and quaint sayings. Like all the Y. M. C. A. entertainments, admission will be free and the public is cordially invited to attend. The program will be given in the Y. M. C. A. rooms in the Martin building.

LOCAL POST OF LEGION OPPOSES CASH BONUS PLAN

The members of the local post of the American Legion went on record at their regular meeting last Friday evening as being against a state cash bonus at the present time.

Their reason for doing so was that any effort to pass a cash bonus measure would jeopardize three other bills fostered by the American Legion which will be acted upon at the present session.

These measures are the land settlement act, the vocational training act, and the home aid act, all of which will have a good chance of passing, according to the state legislative committee of the American Legion.

According to Post Commander Koop, who with other members of the local post's executive committee attended a meeting of representatives of all posts in the state, held in San Francisco recently, it will take a constitutional amendment before any cash bonus measure can be put into operation, as the state constitution expressly forbids any gifts of any kind.

SUES TO QUIET TITLE TO SO. S. F. PROPERTY

Walter G. Downing, through his attorney, William H. Kroning of Oakland, Thursday filed a complaint to quiet title to certain property in South San Francisco against Loretta Martin, administratrix of the estate of Dora B. Downing.

The property in dispute is the easterly half of lot 2, block 122, as shown in map of plot No. 2, South San Francisco. Downing asks that the court declare his title to the property to be clear.

PAYS FINE OF $50 FOR BEATING BOARD BILL

Albert Robinson was before Judge E. E. Cunningham Wednesday morning on a charge of beating his board bill at the Ship Hotel. He was fined $50, $23 for the bill the remainder being costs. The man was arrested at Watsonville, being brought back from that city by City Marshal Conrad.

EAGLES TO HOLD BIG MEETING SOON

South City and Colma-Vista Grande
Aeries to Meet in Daly City.

Colma-Vista Grande Aerie, No. 1848, and South City Aerie, No. 1473, Fraternal Order of Eagles, will hold a joint open meeting in the Daly City auditorium on Tuesday evening, February 1st, at 8 o'clock. Among those who will address the meeting will be Hon. Elbert D. Weed of Wisconsin, the grand worthy president of the order. The meeting will be followed by a free dance and everybody is welcome.

PRESIDENT OF NEW FERRY TO SPEAK BEFORE C. OF C.

Forbes H. Brown, president of the new Six-Minute Ferry Company of Vallejo, will appear at the next meeting of the South San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, to be held at the city hall Tuesday evening, February 8th. The idea of the new ferry for improved service across San Francisco bay has struck a popular note, especially among motorists, who have had experiences of waiting hours on the other side of the bay at different points to return to their homes. Mr. Brown will tell what the new ferry company is doing and what it proposes to do, and his talk should prove interesting to all who ever have occasion to cross the bay.

STEELWORKERS INSTALL NEW OFFICERS FOR YEAR

At a recent meeting the steelworkers' local of South San Francisco elected and installed the following new officers for 1921:

Ben Tatum, president; Harry Stoltenberg, vice-president; Carl Blank, financial secretary; E. May, recording secretary; John B. Shaw, corresponding secretary; J. May, treasurer; Frank Fly, guide; N. Scully, inside guard; Otto Bissett, outside guard; William Lynch, James Singleton, and John Troy, trustees.

ARTHUR McGRATH, U. S. N., DIES ON SHIP AT CUBA

Arthur Thomas McGrath, aged 23 years, son of Mrs. Alice McGrath of 198 Oak avenue, South San Francisco, died January 14th on board the U. S. S. Solace, stationed at Cuba. It is reported here that death came through ptomaine poisoning, but definite information from the government of the cause of death has not yet been received by Mrs. McGrath. The body is now en route to San Francisco from the East, but as yet no definite arrangements have been made for the funeral. Several days' delay was occasioned in acquainting the young man's mother of his death from the fact that the Bureau of Navigation had her address as San Francisco instead of South San Francisco. The first intimation Mrs. McGrath had of the tragic event came through a news dispatch published in the San Francisco papers.

Arthur McGrath was born and raised in South San Francisco. He attended school here. About four years ago he entered the navy. At the time of his death he ranked as a first class gunner.

MANY PUPILS AND TEACHERS VACCINATED

Treatment Given About 700 When Smallpox Appears; Result Is Entirely Successful.

The biggest vaccinating bee ever held in South San Francisco took place at the local schools, beginning Friday of last week and ending Tuesday of this week. In that time nearly 700 pupils and about two dozen teachers were "shot in the arm" as a precautionary measure against smallpox. This move was the result of the exposure of a local family to smallpox and coming down of one member of the family with the disease. Children of the family were attending school and exposing others, therefore the vaccination of all the school children in town was decided upon and quickly carried into execution.

The vaccinating was done by Dr. F. S. Dolley, Dr. R. S. Irvine, Dr. J. Black, and Dr. J. C. McGovern. The pupils of the grammar school were vaccinated Friday. The supply of vaccine having given out, further operations were postponed. Tuesday, a new supply having been received, the work was continued at the high school. It is believed that the prompt measures taken have effectually stamped out the smallpox, as no other cases have been reported.

It is worthy of note that not a pupil or teacher has been compelled to stay out of school a day on account of the vaccination. More than that, Principal L. E. Adams stated Thursday that not even a case of a sore arm following the vaccination had been reported to him.

The appearance of smallpox has been reported in many sections of the state, some 5000 cases being now under care throughout California.

SCOUT OFFICERS ATTEND DINNER AT THE FAIRMONT

Rev. E. H. Molony, scoutmaster of the local troop of Boy Scouts, and Phillip Sullivan, assistant scoutmaster, attended the fourth annual dinner and meeting of the San Francisco council, Boy Scouts, Thursday evening of last week. The address of the evening was delivered by President Ray Lyman Wilbur of Stanford University. The dinner was held in "rainbow lane" at the Palace Hotel. The two scout officers report having spent a most enjoyable and helpful evening.

AVAILON CLUB PLANS BALL FOR SATURDAY EVENING

The members of the Avalon Club, the social organization recently formed by a number of the young men of South San Francisco, have announced their first grand ball to be given tomorrow night (Saturday). The affair will be held at Fraternal Hall, and the boys are looking forward to a large turnout by residents of this city and the surrounding country. The members of the club have been holding regular Wednesday night socials and are constantly taking in new members. The club has not asked any donations to make their club a success, but are receiving considerable support from prominent residents of the town and there is every prospect that the organization will become a power among the young men of this vicinity. A campaign for more new members is to be started February 1st.

The music for the dance to be given by the club will be furnished by the best, Dell Osso's orchestra.

LOCAL MEMBERS OF T. F. B. SEE WORK IN CITY LODGE

Several members of the local lodge of The Fraternal Brotherhood visited Victory Lodge, T. F. B., in San Francisco Thursday evening of last week. The occasion was the installation of the officers of Victory Lodge by the officers of Oakland Lodge, T. F. B. A tempting banquet followed the ceremonies and a very enjoyable time was reported. The local lodge is preparing a big celebration for the silver anniversary on March 18th. New members are being obligated at each meeting and twenty-five new members

HIGH SCHOOL PLAY TO BE POSTPONED

By order of the board of health the play, "Stop Thief," which was to have been given February 1st by the student body of the South San Francisco high school, has been postponed. This is because of the appearance in this city of smallpox.

The students who were to take part in the comedy have been working diligently and have perfected themselves in their various parts. They will continue their rehearsals, and if possible a still more finished production will result through the delay. The date on which the play will be given will be announced later and all tickets purchased will be honored at that date. It is believed that the enforced postponement will be for a few days only.

BOY SCOUTS HEAR TALKS
BY SCOUTMASTER MOLONY

Renewed interest in the Boy Scouts of South San Francisco has been shown by youths of the town since the new scoutmaster, Rev. E. H. Molony, took charge. The meeting night has been changed from Tuesday to Monday, as this seemed to meet with the approval of most of the members.

Last Monday night, in spite of the wet weather, there was a good turnout, and the scouts had a most enjoyable evening. An election was held, with the result that Charles Smith was chosen scribe and Lester Vaccari treasurer. Scoutmaster Molony gave a brief talk on "Trails," with especial reference to marching in Germany and to the trails of Alaska.

MYSTERY AUTO STRIPPED AND BURNED ON HIGHWAY

A mystery automobile fire occurred on the highway near the Duck Farm at about midnight Saturday. A Studebaker touring car of the 1918 model was badly damaged by the blaze. Who the owners of the car are or who was using it at the time of the fire is not known. Practically everything movable, including the tires, was stripped from the machine, evidently before the fire, which leads local officers to believe that it was a stolen machine which was brought from the city to the point on the highway where it was found then stripped and deliberately set afire. The remains of the car are now at the South City Garage while an attempt is being made to locate the owners.

STEEL MILL SUNDAY

A small fire occurred at the steel mill Sunday night. The fire department responded and the blaze was put out with chemical. The fire was caused by "losing a heat" in one of the furnaces. Two steelworkers, Paul Blank and Lloyd Selby, received painful but not serious burns. The damage to the plant was very slight.

Laziness is an easily acquired art.

PRACTICAL RECIPES

GOOD RECIPES FOR MAKING PURE PORK COUNTRY SAUSAGE

Good pork sausage is always in demand. The following recipes for making it are recommended by the United States Department of Agriculture: Take 65 pounds of fresh, lean meat and 35 pounds of fat. Add to this 1 1/2 pounds salt, 2 ounces fine sage, 1 ounce ground nutmeg, and 4 ounces black pepper. The spices should be mixed together and added to the meat before it goes through the grinder. Cut the meat into small pieces and put through the grinder, using the small plate. After it is well ground, mix thoroughly, to be sure that it is uniformly seasoned. No water should be added if the sausage is to be stored away in bulk. If it is to be stuffed in casings, a little water may be necessary to soften the meat, so that it will slip easily into the casings.

Smoked Sausage or Country Sausage

The following ingredients are used in making smoked or country sausage: 85 pounds lean pork, 15 pounds beef, 1 1/2 to 2 pounds salt, 4 ounces black pepper, 1 ounce red pepper, 1 ounce sweet marjoram, 1 ounce mace.

Cut the meat into small pieces and sprinkle seasoning over it, then run it through the grinder, using the small plate. Put it away in a cool place for twenty-four to thirty-six hours, then add a little water, and stuff into hog casings and smoke in a very cool smoke until a dark mahogany color is obtained.

LEFT-OVERS OF CEREALS—WHAT TO DO WITH THEM

What can be done with the cup of cooked cereal left from breakfast? The economical housekeeper dislikes to throw it out, but how can she use it so that her family will like its second appearance at the family board? The following solutions of the problem are offered by the home economics specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Remnants of cereal breakfast foods may often be utilized in making scalloped dishes, souffles, and omelets, in thickening soups or gravies, in making muffins and griddle cakes, and in many other ways. Also they can sometimes be reheated or thinned and added to a new supply. The practice of frying the left-overs of boiled hominy or of corn-meal mush is as old as the settlement of this country, and the nursery song about the "bag pudding the queen did make" from King Arthur's barley meal shows us that for centuries other cereal puddings have been treated in the same way. In so-called "oatmeal oysters" small portions of the left-over cereal are dipped in eggs and crumbs and fried. The use of left-over rice and other cereals in croquettes, puddings, etc., is well known.

Cold cooked farina or similar cereal may be utilized in the following way:

Farina Pudding

1 cup cold, cooked farina.
1 tablespoon cornstarch.
1 egg.
1 cup milk.
1-3 cup sugar.
1/2 cup seeded raisins.
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon.
A speck of ground cloves.
A little salt if desired.

Bake in a medium oven until brown, or heat on top of the stove. Dried figs or dates or stewed fruit may be substituted for the raisins.

Boiled rice and pearl barley are often used in soup, and there is no reason why small quantities of coarse samp or any other cereal which will keep its shape fairly well should not be used up in the same way. Similarly, remnants of macaroni broken into small pieces may be used in the place of vermacelli or other special soup pastes. Such practices serve the double purpose of using material that would otherwise be wasted and of giving a little variety to a simple diet by inexpensive means.

Oatmeal cookies, a toothsome and wholesome sweet for the school lunch, may be made of 1 egg, 1-3 cup granulated sugar, a cup rolled oats, 2 teaspoons melted fat, 1/4 teaspoon salt. Beat the egg, add sugar gradually, and stir in other ingredients. Drop a spoonful at a time on a well-greased tin and bake in a moderate oven.

WELL-KNOWN YOUNG PEOPLE OF SO. S. F. ARE MARRIED

Irene Castiglio and John Canavesio, two young people who are well known in this city, were married at a San Francisco church Thursday evening. Miss Castiglio has lived in South San Francisco with her parents for a number of years. She was formerly employed at Arndt's dry goods store and later at The Hub. Mr. Canavesio is an employee of the Enterprise foundry. The bride was attended by Miss Lavine Picconi, while Madero Castiglio, brother of the bride, acted as best man. Only relatives and close friends of bride and groom attended the ceremony. Following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Castiglio left for Santa Rosa. On their return they will live on West Baden avenue, where Mr. Canavesio has purchased a home.

LETTERS ARE WELCOME.

From time to time the editor of The Enterprise receives letters from residents of various cities in this county, the writers of which take sides in vital issues before the people of these towns. This paper is always glad to receive such communications and will take pleasure in printing them, provided certain well-defined tenets of newspaper publication are conformed with. These rules we ask you to observe are not arbitrary restrictions laid down by the editor of The Enterprise, but are inviolable guides which are part and parcel of the management of every well-conducted newspaper in the country from the largest to the smallest. Every careful editor is himself governed by these rules as well as the reporters on his staff, and his correspondents must be. Letters that conform to such restrictions will always find an honored place in these columns, because the editor of this paper is a firm believer in the good old democratic maxim that every man is entitled to a voice in the government, city, county, state or national.

These rules, briefly set forth, are: Treat subjects of general interest—of interest to your neighbor as well as to yourself. Sign your name—the signature will not be published if you do not wish it, but the editor must know whose letter it is—anonymous communications go to the waste-basket. Be brief—250 words should cover practically any subject. Never indulge in personalities. Write on one side of the paper only. Write legibly—the editor has no time to study out puzzles.

Do you wish to express your opinion on something now being done or not being done in your home town? The Enterprise will cheerfully publish your letter if you will observe the rules here set forth.

THE TRUST OF SUCCESS.

Every employee is a stockholder in the trust of success. The capital which he puts into his corporation is his enthusiasm, his thoughtfulness, and his industry. The dividends which he draws are the notice of his employers, promotion, and increase in salary.

There are thousands who have risen from office boy to the possession of offices of their own marked "private," but not one of these has gone up by chance. Each has been impelled by a desire to progress and has utilized his best thought and persistent industry. Each has kept before him the one hope that some day his would be included in the list of promotions, and with this constantly in view has put himself whole-heartedly into the battle. The success of such a worker is not a matter of chance, but the working out of natural law. His investment is wise, his dividends satisfactory.

PYRAMIDING WEALTH.

A New York dispatch recently stated that fifty families in the United States control more than $100,000,000 each; one hundred families control over $50,000,000 each, and five hundred families control more than $10,000,000 each. John D. Rockefeller's estate is now said to be between $3,000,000,000 and $4,000,000,000.

It is the hoarding of such vast fortunes as these into the hands of a few that has made Russia bolshevistic and driven its ruling class to pauperism and death. It is the wedge that has divided the wealthy class from the great mass of the people throughout the countries of Europe, and has created widespread dissatisfaction that has brought on wars and toppled kings and emperors from their thrones. Only the blind and the foolish will continue to consider this country immune.

It is difficult to induce people to believe that such gigantic fortunes can be accumulated by honest methods in the space of a few years, and dishonesty is the rock upon which governments and individuals sooner or later come to grief.

The pyramiding of wealth is the most dangerous disease with which our country is afflicted today. It indicates the existence of profiteering combinations which are inimical to the welfare of the republic. Official complaisance will not ease the tension, and doling out a few thousands will not wash away the sins of its accumulation.

Shaking a red rag in the face of a bull maddens the animal and starts it on a wild rampage of destruction. If a halt is not called there may come a time when pyramided wealth becomes the red rag of destructive revolution.

When governments become blind the people are forced to do their own seeing, and under stress of great provocation they are too often inclined to "see red." It is time for all advocates of the square deal to sound a warning call. Washington should sit up and take heed. People who love their country do not care to see it come to grief through the cupidity of money maniacs.

KEEP GOING!

Everybody expects 1921 to be a prosperous year, but that is no reason why any one should slacken his efforts. That is the one thing that should be avoided.

The situation calls for energetic and persevering production on the part of all people, regardless of how great or how humble their station in life may be.

We can not expect great prosperity to come to us if we leave the burden of production to a few, nor can we expect confidence to be maintained if idleness and shiftlessness prevail where thrift and energy are possible.

We have reached the crest of our wave of depression which follows every great war, and are descending safely on the other side.

What we want to do now is to keep going until we float into the harbor of commercial sanity and permanent prosperity.

Production, conservation, and the square deal in business will get us there.

The attainment of success is easy. It only requires knowledge, energy, perseverance, good judgment, and an iron determination to surmount all obstacles. Go after it.

Chicago women say a wife has no right to open her husband's letters. But we suspect this is only a feminine dodge to get rid of some marriageable daughters.

If our American millionaires continue to spend so much time and money in Europe they will soon be poor enough to go back to work again.

We fear many of the unemployed are still unemployed simply because they want everything reduced but wages.

COMING TO THE MAJESTIC.

The Majestic Theater, the cozy little playhouse in the Mission district, goes back into its old policy of presenting dramatic stock again, commencing with the matinee performance next Sunday, January 30th. All new players have been engaged by the Majestic management and all new plays will be presented at a new low price. For the opening of the season the Majestic will put on none other than the famous comedy-drama, "Peg o' My Heart." It ran for two weeks at the Alcazar a few months ago. The Majestic has secured it at a tremendous royalty. Gerald Griffin, Ireland's sweetest singer, heads the cast in the new company, and is ably supported by a big Mission favorite, Robert E. Lawrence, and a big cast. Matinees are given at the Majestic each Wednesday, Saturday, and Sunday. The matinees start at 2:15 and the night performances at 8:15. Seats may be reserved one week in advance or for the entire season. The phone number of the Majestic is Mission 4109. Phone or write in your reservations.

EUROPEANS PLEADING FOR THEIR CHILDREN

Elder Generation Sacrifices Self
That Hope of Future May Receive Means of Life.

The one optimistic note in the desperate need prevailing through the war-torn areas of eastern Europe is the extraordinary and touching faith of the people in the children. The elder generation has put all its hope and trust in the future of the generation now in its early years. In fact, in many instances it is deliberately sacrificing itself for the children, the Europe of tomorrow.

In the war-ravaged districts supplies necessary for maintenance of institutions are lacking, but it has been noted that always the request for outside aid emphasizes the needs of the orphanages. How marked is this inclination was indicated by the fact that one district of Poland the authorities, appealing to an American relief organization for assistance, asked assistance for only one military hospital, four general hospitals and twenty orphanages.

The appeal has reached America with the result that because they know that literally millions of European children face starvation and death from disease unless the aid that only this country can give is forthcoming, eight great American relief agencies have banded together under the name of the European Relief Council to raise $33,000,000 needed to tide the baby generation of Europe over possibly the most critical winter it has yet faced. These are the American Relief Administration, the American Red Cross, the American Friends' Service Committee (Quakers), the Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, the Knights of Columbus, the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A.

FOREIGNERS SENDING VAST RELIEF HOME

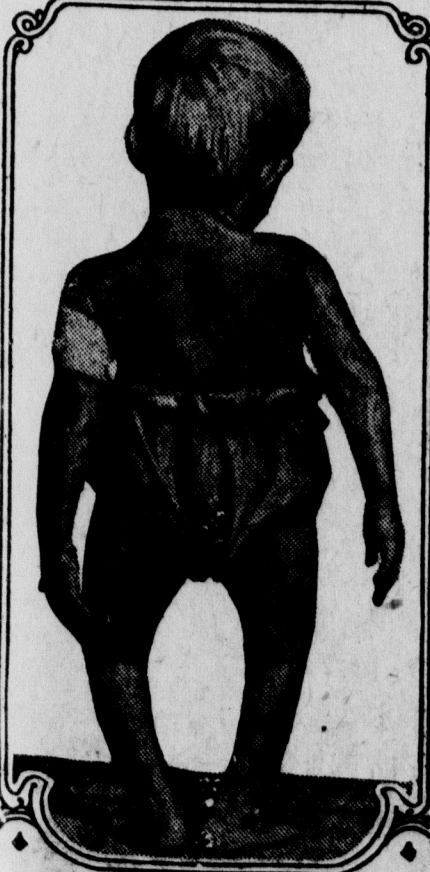

Over 90 Per Cent of Food Drafts
Sent to Europe Gifts From Immigrant Population.

Out of their earnings, for the most part as unskilled laborers, living from hand to mouth, the foreign-born element in the United States is contributing largely to the funds for food supplies to aid the starving peoples of their native lands.

Figures from the Food Draft section of the American Relief Administration show that $593,110 had been sent to Poland, up to the end of November. $158,170 had been sent to Czechoslovakia, Hungary had received $382,760, Germany had $1,448,619 and Austria $2,046,720. It was estimated that more than 90 per cent of this money had been spent by nationals of these various countries who are now in the United States. There are about 1,500,000 Poles, 800,000 Hungarians, 500,000 Czechs and 600,000 Slovaks in this country.

The profits which resulted from the sale of these food drafts have been turned into the fund for general child feeding. It is to bring this fund up to the point where it can meet the demands on it, to save the lives of 3,500,000 children that the European Relief Council has been formed by eight great relief organizations.

Rickets Did This.

This Vienna child is six years old, but because of the ravages of rickets, the disease born of under-nutrition that has stricken thousands of European children, she is able to toddle about only by dint of supreme effort. The spread of this terrible disease of childhood and the rescue of those already in its grip can only be accomplished by America. That is why eight great American relief organizations have banded together under the name of the European Relief Council in a joint appeal to the American conscience for funds.

LAUNCH VAST EFFORT FOR EUROPE'S YOUNG

Eight American Relief Agencies
Combine to Save 3,500,000
Children Death Menaces.

Eight great relief organizations, working among and for every race and creed, have united under the name of the European Relief Council to coordinate child relief in Europe this winter. The Council will seek to provide funds for 3,500,000 starving and diseased children in Eastern and Central Europe and to administer this relief economically.

It consists of Herbert Hoover, chairman, and Franklin K. Lane, treasurer; Edgar Rickard, representing the American Relief Administration; Dr. Livingston Farrand, representing the American Red Cross; Felix Warburg, representing the Jewish Joint Distribution Committee; Wilbur K. Thomas, representing the American Friends' Service Committee (Quakers); James A. Flaherty, representing the Knights of Columbus; Dr. C. V. Hibbard, representing the Young Men's Christian Association; Miss Sarah S. Lyon, representing the Young Women's Christian Association; Dr. Arthur Brown, representing the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America.

It is the purpose of the Council to raise $33,000,000, in an appeal centering at the Christmas holidays, to the end that the desperate situation regarding child life may be met. In every town and community of the nation, it is planned, local committees, representing all the co-operating agencies will be formed to secure the vitally necessary funds. Of the amount sought, $23,000,000 will be used for basic food and $10,000,000 for medical service.

For every one of these American dollars the local governments and communities aided will furnish two dollars, in the form of transportation, labor, guards, clerical help, cash contributions and such food supplies as are locally obtainable. No children receive the free food except after medical tests showing them to be seriously undernourished. The remaining $10,000,000 of the fund is just as urgently needed for medical service to the children.

The European Relief Council will do much more than effect economies in the raising of the child saving fund. It will, with the inspecting forces of eight great agencies, keep a constant eye on the administration of America's merciful gift, in order that there shall be no wastage and no tendency toward pauperization.

"This is the largest co-operative benevolent organization ever attempted in the United States," Mr. Hoover says. "The organizations represented have come to the unanimous, though independently formed conclusion, that nothing but prompt and united action by the whole American people can avert incredible tragedy for the helpless children involved. The organizations forming the Council will organize their representatives in every town and community of the nation for the raising of the necessary funds."

Pleads for Europe's Helpless Children

"They are no more my children than yours," is Herbert Hoover's homely yet eloquent plea for 3,500,000 European children who face incredible tragedy this winter unless America comes to their rescue. The funds by which American aid has been feeding millions have run out, and that the work may not stop and thus precipitate what would amount to "a massacre of the innocents" seven other great American relief organizations have united with Mr. Hoover's organization under the name of the European Relief Council in a joint appeal for funds. The collaborating agencies are the American Red Cross, the American Friends' Service Committee (Quakers), the Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, the Knights of Columbus, the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A.

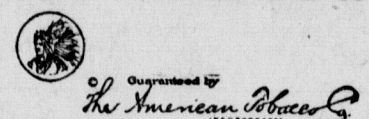

BELASCO OPENS STUDIO OF MANY DEPARTMENTS

The opening of the Belasco studios in the Commercial building has filled a space that has long been vacant in the city of San Francisco. Walter Belasco, member of the famous Belasco family and brother of the well-known David Belasco, is the supervising director. Belasco has spared no expense in presenting this modernly equipped studio to the public of the bay district. The news reached Los Angeles as a most welcome and long-awaited-for surprise, and one big director upon hearing it, stated: "Mr. Belasco is the right man in the right place and San Francisco should be considered mighty fortunate." He further stated that many of the companies now located in the south will be moving north to locate and "shoot" new scenes, and this news of the opening of the Belasco studios will be a big factor in bringing the companies north at a much earlier date, for all know that a Belasco product will be a finished one.

Mr. Belasco, in a statement to the publicity manager of this paper, said: "It has always been my desire to locate permanently in this wonderful city and devote my entire time to the uplift of the drama, and now my dream has become a reality."

Mr. Belasco will be assisted by a corps of artists, who will instruct in the following classes: Art and lighting, movie acting, dramatic art, scene painting, camera work, voice culture, scenario and play writing, and modern stagecraft, in addition to a special class for children in the above subjects as well as a thorough training in child dancing. There are departments for social chatter, social etiquette, public speaking, and the art of make-up, including a special class which will be of unusual interest for the fairer sex, that of the art of "street make-up."

Clubs, societies and lodges of this district may secure at this studio the services of professional directors for the staging of private plays and pictures. A department that will no doubt interest the mothers of this vicinity will be that for the filming of children for later record.

The new studios occupy the greater part of the eleventh floor in the Commercial building, 833 Market street, next to the Emporium.

HAS COIN MINTED IN 1781.

Judge E. E. Cunningham is displaying a Spanish coin made in 1781, which he discovered recently among some family relics. This coin, now 139 years of age, bears the head and royal crest of Charles III, king of Spain and of both the Californias at that time. It was this king who ordered De Anza to proceed from his post at Sonora, Mexico, to San Francisco to establish a presidio. De Anza made the trip overland, encountering great hardships. The old coin is a valuable relic and highly prized by the judge.

CITY TRUSTEES MEET IN REGULAR SESSION

Improvements at Fire House With Insurance for Active Men of Department Discussed.

The board of trustees met in regular session at the city hall Wednesday evening. The greater part of the evening was taken up in discussion of improvements for the fire house and insurance for the active members of the fire company appointed by the fire chief.

City Clerk Nettie A. Willits, acting as water board clerk, reported that receipts from the water system since June 1, 1920, to December 31, 1920, were $3536.59. Disbursements for the same period amounted to $3914.04, leaving a deficit of $377.55.

City Treasurer Joseph Cunningham's report, showing a balance of all funds of $12,786.78 as of November 30, 1920, was accepted and filed.

City Attorney John F. Davis reported that as yet he had been unable to ascertain whether or not a permit had been granted to the Huntington Park Realty Company to sell its water holdings to the city. He reported also that a communication had been addressed to the Railroad Commission, a copy of which was read before the board, concerning the raise in rates granted the Peninsula Rapid Transit Company. The letter stated that San Bruno had not been notified of such a hearing, that the rates were unjust and out of proportion as compared with other cities. The letter further requested that a rehearing in the matter be granted.

As to the matter of zoning, City Attorney Davis was unable to make a definite report, as he and City Engineer George A. Kneese are busy detailing data which will be presented at the next meeting of the trustees.

The monthly report of City Marshal William F. Wedell was ordered filed after reading.

City Clerk Willits reported that owing to heavy work in her office she had not as yet been able to compile an annual report, but she felt sure of being able to do so by next regular meeting.

Building permits were granted to T. N. Davis to erect a garage in Fourth addition; to H. Palmer to build a garage and shed in Fifth addition, and to P. Gobbe to erect an outbuilding on his property. A permit was granted to Deputy Marshal F. Steward to build a cottage in Third addition. John Schyff is the contractor.

A communication from the Parent-Teacher Association, while complimenting the action of the board in the installation of a board walk on Elm avenue between Tucker avenue and Edgemont school, stated that the walk did not quite fill the demand, inasmuch as it was on the wrong side of the street and did not connect with the present sidewalk. Immediate action was requested and the matter was turned over to Commissioner of Public Works J. T. O'Connor for prompt remedy.

The request of the Cabin Garage that its remuneration for taking care of the fire truck be increased and that the city purchase a part of its gasoline and oils from the garage, was acted upon favorably. The monthly remuneration was increased from $10 per month to $15.

According to a letter received from the San Mateo evening school by Secretary G. G. Hughes of the Chamber of Commerce, read before the trustees, two new classes, salesmanship and commercial law, have been added to the curriculum for the coming term. James B. Sykes has been retained as instructor for these two classes. The new classes are to begin next Monday evening. All interested should attend. School is held at the Edgemont school building.

A communication from the Community Center, inviting all of the city officials to attend a get-together dinner February 12th, was received and filed. The object of the dinner is to arouse new interest in the work now being carried on by the Community Center and the Center Club.

A communication from E. Grant of the State Enforcement League, pertaining to the passage of an ordinance similar to the Volstead act, was filed.

The city clerk was instructed to write T. E. Atkinson, in answer to his letter, requesting that he submit an estimate as to the cost of making an audit of the city's books. The clerk was also instructed to write to other audit firms on the same subject.

Fire Chief Frank Mazzaro, in a communication addressed to the trustees, named the following men as active firemen: Harry Love, Fred Madden, E. Steward, W. Hoops, George Jenevein, J. M. Suparich, George Clark, W. L. Maher, F. Pene, and J. Ochs. These men are now recognized as constituting the official fire department. The matter of insurance was then taken up and after considerable discussion was disposed of, as the State Industrial Insurance Commission handles this matter of indemnity and accident insurance. Considerable discussion arose over this subject before the matter could be explained thoroughly to all interested.

Fire Commissioner P. Kane, on behalf of the fire commissioners, then presented plans and specifications for proposed improvements on the fire house requested some time ago by the fire laddies. After discussion, City Clerk Willits was instructed to advertise for bids. All work and material is to be furnished locally so far as possible. The question of separate badges for the active firemen was referred to the fire commission for action.

Regarding lights, requested installed at a previous meeting, Light Commissioner P. Kane informed the board that he thought these lights were needed, especially on Seventh avenue in Belle Air Park. He was instructed to go over the ground with a representative of the light company and arrange matters.

City Clerk Willits was instructed to write a strong letter to A. Jenevein regarding an enclosed cesspool and uncovered well on his premises, following the report of Public Works Commissioner O'Connor.

An ordinance pertaining to the storage of gasoline, petroleum, and other kinds of inflammable oils, was introduced and unanimously passed the first reading.

City Clerk Willits was instructed to communicate with the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, requesting that it show permit for placing of stub poles in repair work throughout the limits of the city. The unsightliness of such repairs brought about the above action.

Several photographs showing streets paved with asphaltic concrete were submitted, and were ordered exhibited, along with samples of the material, at the postoffice and any other public place. These various views show the kind of paved streets contemplated for San Bruno.

A Printer's Madrigal. (Extremely technical.)

I'd like to have you meet my wife!
I simply cannot keep from hinting
I've never seen in all my life
So fine a specimen of printing.

Her type is not some bold-face font,
Set solid. Nay! And I will say out
That no typographer could want
To see a better balanced layout.

A nice proportion of white space
There is for brown eyes to look large in,
And not a feature in her face
Comes anywhere too near the margin.

Locked up with all her sweet display
Her form will never pl. She's like a
Corrected proof marked set, O. K.—
And yet she loves me, paltry pica!

She has a fine one-column head,
And like a comma curves each eyebrow—
Her forehead has an extra lead
Which makes her seem a trifle highbrow.

Her nose, italicized brevier,
Too lovely to be described by pen-
point;
Her mouth is set in pearl; her ear
And chin are comely Caslon ten-
point.

Her cheeks (a pink parenthesis)
Make my pulse beat 14-em measure,
And such typography as this Would make De Vinne scream with pleasure.

And so, of all typefounder chaps
Her father's best, in my opinion;
She is my nonpareil (IN CAPS)
And I (in lower case) her minion.

I hope you will not stand aloof
Because my metaphors are shoppy;
Of her devotion I've a proof—
I tell the urchin, Follow Copy!

VIENNA DEATH RATE BECOMES APPALLING

Condition of Children Even More Harrowing, Declares Authority on City's Desperate Plight.

Five years of famine have resulted in greatly increased mortality and morbidity in Vienna which before the war was counted as one of the healthiest cities in Europe. Figures prepared by Dr. Gustave Bohn, head of the Vienna Health Department, show that in 1913 the death rate was 15.3 per thousand. In 1918 the rate was 22.5 per thousand, an increase of more than 47 per cent.

Professor Hans Spel of the University of Vienna, says that "even more terrible than the mortality statistics are those referring to the condition of children and their mothers. Owing to under-nourishment few mothers can nurse their babies, and the milk shortage affects not only infants, but all children in spite of all that has been done to help. At Professor Clemens Pirquet's clinic in the university some 54,849 children were examined in 1918. Only 4,687 of these or about one-thirteenth were passed as skin good, fat good; 28,809 were pale and thin, or very pale and very thin.

"The health of these children shows most disquieting features. Skin disease, rachitis and Barlow's disease are rife. "The chief medical officer of Vienna asks, 'What is going to happen to these under-fed children, in whose bodies the germ of tuberculosis is latent, when they reach the twenties, at which time it becomes active?'"

To combat these conditions the American Relief Administration of which Herbert Hoover is chairman fed last winter in the city of Vienna some 300,000 of the destitute and under-nourished children, supplying them with a substantial meal, of American food, served in a number of large kitchens opened for that purpose.

The conditions in Vienna are more or less typical of those in Poland and other countries of Central and Eastern Europe. Last year the Relief Administration was able to reach some 3,500,000 under-nourished children and this winter the program calls for the feeding of a like number, but, eight of the great charitable organizations of America have united under the name of the European Relief Council, of which Mr. Hoover is the chairman. The child feeding task will be carried on not only by the American Relief Administration but by the American Red Cross, the American Friends Service Committee (Quakers), the Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, the Knights of Columbus, the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. An appeal for $35,000,000 has been made and the organizations named have joined in raising the sum.

LAUGHTER OF CHILD SCARCE IN POLAND

"In all the time I was in Poland, I scarcely once saw a child laugh," declared Dr. Harry Plotz, discoverer of the typhus bacillus, in a report to the European Relief Council on medical conditions among the Jewish population of Poland, based on his recent investigations there for the Jewish Joint Distribution Committee.

"The most deplorable sight of all the miseries in Poland is the condition of the children," Dr. Plotz said. "Infant mortality is exceedingly high because of under-nourishment and the high percentage of contagious diseases. In large part mothers must resort to artificial feeding as they are unable to nurse their children. In many cities I saw underfed children, suffering with diseases, wandering about the streets with no place to go, begging for bread."

Tuberculosis has become prevalent among the Jewish children, largely due to the overcrowded conditions in which they are forced to live, their lack of nourishing food and warm clothing, according to Dr. Plotz. Typhus, which killed thousands of Jews last winter in the worst epidemic Poland has ever seen will recur again, he said, as conditions are much worse among the Jews than ever before.

"Favus, a contagious skin disease, is now rapidly spreading from child to child," he continued. "In Vienna there are 11,000 cases among the Jewish children alone. Smallpox, too, is prevalent throughout Poland and the Ukraine and children, with widespread eruptions and temperature, have been seen running about the streets. There are thousands of cases every year, which vaccination would prevent, but there is no vaccine."

Dr. Plotz told how in Lithuanian villages he found children, six and seven years old, unable to walk or talk, the result of malnutrition. In regions where whole towns had been destroyed during the war, he found families crowded in miserable dug-outs.

The art of appreciation is one of the fine arts.

"Well," answered the editor, without hesitation, "it goes to Kansas City, to Chicago, to St. Louis, to Detroit, and sometimes I think it's going to hell."—San Diego Union.

VOGLIANO UNA NUOVA CARREGGIABILE SULLA PRO-PIETA' DI OCEAN SHORE

I residenti della costa di San Mateo county cominciano un movimento il quale intende di forzare lo stato ad ottenere i vecchi diritti di passaggio della compagnia ferroviaria di Ocean Shore e convertire questa in una via statale. Questo provvederebbe agli agricoltori di questa sezione di portare i loro prodotti al mercato della città più rapidamente che al presente.

Ci è giustificato dai suoi seguaci che questa strada potrebbe condurre ad un movimento per installare le difese della costa al sud di San Francisco. Queste difese sono state richieste diverse volte dagli ingegneri governativi. La strada sarebbe inoltre scena di un pittoresco panorama.

MATINEES TO BE GIVEN FOR EUROPEAN RELIEF

"Kiddies' matinees" in every community of northern California for the European relief campaign, February 1st to 8th, have been assured by the state board of education in authorizing county superintendents of schools to declare half holidays on any given morning during the campaign week. The ruling of the state board was made following an appearance before them of a delegation from the Allied Amusement Industries of northern California, headed by Manager Charles A. Nelson of the association, urging the importance of the relief work and the value of the school children's cooperation.

The northern California plan of "kiddies' matinees" follows the plan in this city for morning matinees at all San Francisco theaters on February 3d, the board of education having declared a half holiday for that morning. The entire proceeds of the matinees will be turned over to the Hoover relief fund for the starving children of the central European countries.

Clothing Prices Cut To One-Half

The world's greatest industry—the clothing manufacturers' business—has suffered more during this decline in prices than any industry in the world. It simply put the clothing business at a standstill. The retail stores have stopped buying, even though they are doing a good business. What are the manufacturers going to do with the enormous stocks on hand? Only one thing left to be done—that is to sell direct to the public. So here goes for the greatest wholesale clothing sale ever seen on the Pacific Coast. A local clothing manufacturing firm which is known all over the Pacific Coast for the high-class goods they have been making, will sell their entire stock for less than what they originally sold them to the storekeepers for. Come direct to 467 Market street and save the storekeepers' and jobbers' profit.—Adv.

BILL IS DELAYED
Legislature Spends Strenuous
Week of Contention

By GEO. S. TURNER.

Sacramento—The Legislature spent the whole week in a desperate struggle between two contending forces: the corporations, the tax rate upon which it was proposed to raise, and the farmers and other citizens who favored the raise and who are bitterly opposed to the prospect of a direct property tax of 22 cents if the bill to raise the corporation rates be defeated.

To understand the matter thoroughly it should be explained that the first amendment to the State Constitution, as it is called, which provides for the payment of the State taxes by the corporation also provides that to change the rate of taxation requires the same number of votes as a constitutional amendment, namely, two-thirds of the elected members of either house. California, unlike Congress and the other states, requires that all bills shall be passed by a majority of the members-elect in both houses, and that constitutional amendments must be passed by a two-thirds vote of the members-elect also.

It will thus be seen that there being forty senators, twenty-seven are needed to pass a constitutional amendment or to change the tax rate, and fifty-four votes in the assembly. Consequently, if there were not twenty-seven senators present when a vote was taken in the Senate, or though all voted for the measure, it would not have passed.

Owing to that provision the opposition needed only fourteen votes in the Senate and twenty-seven in the Assembly to defeat a measure. As one of the assemblymen is dead, his vote is practically the same as though he were voting no, and therefore the opposition only needs to get twenty-six votes. It managed to get twenty-eight and thus the farming element and the administration was defeated.

SENATE IS LOCKED UP 17 HOURS

In the Senate the first vote showed that the measure had carried, but the lieutenant governor is not very rapid and before he announced the vote there were changes which made the vote, as announced, twenty-six to eleven. A call of the Senate was ordered, that is to say the members were all locked in while the sergeant-at-arms went out to hunt up the three delinquent members. Two of them were speedily found, but the third, Senator Irwin of Hartford, had slipped off to San Francisco and the Senate remained shut up for seventeen hours, all Tuesday night, waiting for him to return. The lobby hung around and kept watch and rushed down to the depot to meet the incoming senator, but one of his colleagues got there with a sergeant-at-arms in a taxicab first and he was arrested and brought to the Senate chambers. Meantime several of the senators had concluded to change their votes, so that when the final vote was announced at 11 a. m. Wednesday it stood thirty to ten in favor of the measure.

In the Senate committee the bill had been amended as originally prepared and the street railways and interurban electric lines were placed in a class by themselves. The rates were then finally established at seven per cent for the steam railroads, five and a quarter for the electric roads; five and a quarter on car companies such as the Pullman and refrigerator cars; one per cent on express companies; gas and electric companies, seven per cent; banks, 1.45 per cent, and insurance companies, 2.60 per cent. The banks had originally been placed at 1.51 per cent but it was shown that they were taxed to support the bank examiner and on their real estate, so the rate was lowered to 1.45.

INCREASE WOULD HAVE GIVEN
STATE $7,000,000 A YEAR
It is estimated that the increase would have given the State seven million dollars a year in increased taxation, or $14,000,000 for the biennial period.

When the bill was passed by the Senate and sent to the Assembly all interest in the Legislature crossed the capitol to the north wing and that became the center of activity.

The bill was sent at once to the committee on public utilities, of which former speaker and, former minister to Japan, Frank L. Coombs, of Napa, is the chairman, and was speedily sent back to the Assembly for its action.

The moment the measure was reported back by the committee the fight began and lasted daily until 5 p. m. Saturday, when the first decisive vote was taken after an all day debate. It resulted in fifty-one votes for and twenty-eight votes against the measure, which being three less than the needed fifty-four, meant that the bill was defeated, but Assemblyman Pettis gave notice that he would move to reconsider, and the measure was accordingly hung up until Monday, although the Legislature had expected to adjourn on Friday the 21st instant.

The corporations did not as a rule deny that they were being taxed too low, but they objected to the amount of the raise. The banks even agreed that 1.33 would be a fair value, and their spokesman on the floor, Assemblyman Humes, of Ventura, tried very hard to get the bill amended to that figure. All amendments, however, were voted down by practically the same vote, and in the end even Humes voted for the bill.

It is understood that if it fails of passage the State will be forced to create a direct tax of 22 per cent on all property, and the farmers declare that they can not stand a burden of that magnitude upon their present finances. The corporations have the assurance of the Railroad Commission, it was intimated, that it may raise their rates to cover the tax if they are assessed at the increased rates, and that alleged fact was several times alluded to by the speakers.

The telephone was kept busy, especially while the bill was before the Assembly, ringing up assemblymen by the farmers to urge the former not to vote for the bill, and automobile loads of farmers came up from Stockton, where a convention was formed to fight the bill. There was scarcely a "cow" county in the State in which telegrams and resolutions by farmers' unions, farm advisers, etc., were not wired to their representatives.

The railroad men (employees), however, stood with the companies, apparently, and several telegrams were read or alluded to as coming from them, urging that the bill be killed. The business men as a rule asked for delay without committing themselves on either side, the telegrams in most cases showing that the people that sent them did not clearly understand the case, and what was involved.

The argument of the corporations was that perhaps no heavy direct tax would be needed. Expenses might be cut down, and it was clearly shown in the course of the debate that the State budget will not pass without considerable opposition.

GOVERNOR FURNISHES INTERESTING EVENT

The governor furnished the second interesting event of the week by sending to the Legislature, accompanied by a long message, eight bills which abolish some ninety commissions and boards and substitute for them eight departments, each subdivided, with their heads appointed by the governor, and the heads in turn appointing their subordinates. It is practically the commission form of government carried out in a State government with the governor perpetually at the head, but holding each department head responsible for his own department.

Some of the boards are continued, as at present, and some of the commissioners, as in the case of the bank examiner and insurance commissioner, but that is because of constitutional provisions which would make it only possible to abolish them by a constitutional amendment, or because their work is so entirely different that they can not be combined with any other department. Besides some of the commissions, such as that of banks and that of insurance, pay large sums into the State treasury, and therefore it would not be a movement in the interests of economy to abolish them.

Some of the other boards retained are simply to act as advisory boards, with no power of any kind. The Railroad Commission is not touched, neither are the Board of Health, the Board of Correction and Charities, nor the San Francisco Harbor Board, and the governor especially says in relation to that body that it should remain a State institution, and that San Francisco should not have control of its water front, so that many years' ambition of the Bay city once more goes glimmering.

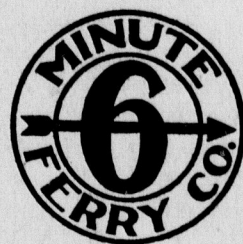

The governor, however, was not allowed to have a monopoly of the economy plans and the Taxpayers' Association introduced one bill which proposed to accomplish the eight bills of the governor, only more so. That is to say while the governor's bill would possibly save half a million, the taxpayers declare their bill will cut the State's expenses down $2,000,000. As the various measures are sure to come up as soon as the Legislature reconvenes, it would be well for the people of the State during the month that the Legislature is in recess to ask to have the various bills explained to them, and to indicate which plan they favor. Of course the various boards which are to be abolished have strong lobbies of employees already on to the job of holding their jobs, and the fight when the session reconvenes is going to be a long and bitter one.

LEGISLATURE INTENDS TO KEEP POSTED

It is very evident as the session progresses that the present Legislature proposes to know the why and wherefore of everything it does. It has already demanded the payrolls of the State, and now it proposes to find out why the State University wants $15,000,000, and to investigate the State Railroad Commission.

In connection with the State University it may be mentioned that the university has always been run on a different plan from the rest of the public institutions of the State. Thus, while all their bills have to pass through the financial agents of the State, the Board of Control and the State controller, the university has been allowed to run its own affairs, and the money given for specific purposes never is in the State treasury or passes through the hands of the State officials. The money appropriated by the State is drawn by the university treasurer and placed in his bank, if he has one, and of course it is an ideal account. The Legislature now demands that it shall have a detailed statement of all the receipts and expenses of the university and a full list of all of its employees. If that is not forthcoming, and there is said to be hesitation about giving it, it will not be surprising to learn that the university does not get what it wants.

The decisions of the Railroad Commission, and especially its announcement that it may raise the rates allowed corporations with public utilities, is the subject of much fire and many objections, and no doubt the commission will be asked to explain its recent decisions in many cases during the coming session.

LADIES' LEGION AUXILIARY GIVES OLD-FASHIONED PARTY

One of the most novel affairs of the present season was the party given last Friday evening by the Ladies of the Womn's Auxiliary of the American Legion.

It was in the nature of an old-fashioned party, with games, dancing and refreshments as the principal but by no means the only means of passing a delightful evening.

One of the surprises of the evening was the jazz piano playing of J. J.
(Jack) Martin. Mr. Martin, who is well known as an artist where classical music is concerned, proved that he is also a master of jazz.

Among the events of the evening was an old-fashioned Virginia reel, led by Miss Grace Martin and T. V.
Barton.

Alec Welte was on hand with suggestions for kissing games, but was overruled by the ladies.

It is expected that this party will be the forerunner of many enjoyable affairs.

Eventually we may be forced to concede that woman's sphere is this one on which we live.—San Diego
